

Religious radio broadcasting makes a HUGE impact on my life and the lives of my children. We have an uplifting, positive, focused station that provides comforting music and promotes love...not violence and low moral music. I prefer to have my children learn uplifting lessons in life through Christian music as opposed to junk filling their little heads through secular "music" out there. They truly enjoy it too!!!!